

The Penn Cancer Network is a select group of hospitals throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware collaborating with the Abramson Cancer Center at the University of Pennsylvania to provide excellence in cancer patient care services throughout the Delaware Valley region and beyond. Penn's Cancer Network hospitals are recognized for their excellence in patient care and a commitment to improving the health and well-being of their community.

The Abramson Cancer Center of the University of Pennsylvania is one of the nation's foremost cancer centers, offering a wide array of cancer subspecialty care and a vast research and technological resources unavailable anywhere in the region. Penn Cancer Network provides a collaborative relationship of integrated cancer care services and support between the Penn Cancer Network partners and the University of Pennsylvania Health System clinician specialists and scientists.

DESCRIPTION

Administrative Director -- Penn Cancer Network

As Administrative Director, you will oversee all aspects of Penn Cancer Network, including recruitment and evaluation of prospective network affiliates. You will also lead contract negotiations and strategic planning for the development of Network-wide strategies in order to achieve stated objectives, maintenance of effective relationships with all representatives at member institutions, and assurance of high level satisfaction with network relationship for both Penn Medicine cancer services and Network partners. You will help coordinate Penn Medicine marketing and public relations initiatives through for Penn Cancer Network partners, and will identify and develop services and programs for Penn Medicine that will be effective in strengthening a broad array of programs at the Network partner institutions.

Successful candidates will possess demonstrated leadership knowledge and track record, at minimum, in the following areas:

- Delivery of cancer services across therapeutic modalities
- Development and implementation of integrated cancer programs
- Familiarity and comfort in navigating various operational nuances within academic and community settings
- Facility in cultivating excellent physician relations
- The incumbent needs to be a credible leader in cancer planning and business development, with the ability to influence effectively in an academic medical setting

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

The qualified candidate will have a Bachelor's degree in health care administration, nursing or related field, with 10 -15 years of relevant leadership experience OR MBA, MHA, MSN or Masters Degree in related field, with a minimum of 10 years of relevant leadership experience.

CLOSING

Working within the University of Pennsylvania Health System, you will enjoy the camaraderie and support that you'll experience at our prestigious institution, as well as a comprehensive compensation and benefits program that includes generous pre-paid tuition assistance. Apply directly online to this posting or feel free to e-mail your credentials directly to david.schaaf@uphs.upenn.edu

Your Life Is Worth Penn Medicine
www.pennmedicine.org/jobs

AA/EOE, M/F/D/V.