

Eisenhower Medical Center

Job Title: Executive Director, Lucy Curci Cancer Center- Great Opportunity!

Located near Palm Springs, California, Eisenhower Medical Center is a not-for-profit hospital seeking an experienced Executive Director for the Lucy Curci Cancer Center. Please visit Careers.EMC.org to learn more information and apply.

The Executive Director must meet the following job requirements:

- BSN
- MSN preferred
- Multiple years of health care management and leadership
- Cancer center experience preferred

The Executive Director's responsibilities include:

- The day-to-day operations of the cancer center, including financial, staffing, building, patient and physician satisfaction, and all other aspects of the center operations
- Accountable for interfacing with physician groups referring to the center, the community and all the various departments of the medical center
- Works in concert with the yet-to-be-named Medical Director, the Cancer Committee and business development
- Responsible for patient education, staff training, clinical research and community education
- Responsible for the following hospital departments: Infusion Services, Radiation Therapy, Breast Center, Cancer Information, Clinical Research, and Patient and Family Support Services

Eisenhower is proud to offer:

- Handsome relocation assistance
- Competitive compensation
- A generous benefits package and matched retirement plan
- Health and wellness programs

About Eisenhower Medical Center:

Near Palm Springs, California, our vibrant community offers an enviable lifestyle including affordable housing, minimal traffic, world-class dining and shopping, and year round recreational activities. Additionally, Eisenhower Medical Center is less than two hours away from sandy beaches and mountain resorts.

At Eisenhower Medical Center, we offer a progressive environment with an emphasis on individual growth and advanced medical practices seldom seen in other hospitals. As a not-for-profit and comprehensive health care institution located in Southern California, we are the proud recipient of the 2009 Distinguished Hospital award for Excellence™ by HealthGrades®.

Located on 130 acres in Rancho Mirage, we offer our community a 313-bed hospital with construction underway of the Walter and Leonore Annenberg Pavilion that will expand Eisenhower to nearly 500 beds. We also have a multitude of specialty centers including The Betty Ford Center at Eisenhower, the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower and the Annenberg Center for Health Sciences at Eisenhower.

Eisenhower is renowned for its Centers of Excellence in Orthopedics, ranked #1 in California for Joint Replacement three years in a row (2008, 2009 & 2010) by HealthGrades®, as well as its Centers of Excellence in Cardiovascular, Neuroscience and Oncology. Eisenhower fosters a respectful, supportive and friendly work environment.

Come JOIN our TEAM! To apply for a position now please visit Careers.EMC.org