

Job Title: Oncology Service Line Director

Location: Newport News, VA

Riverside Health System is the largest provider on the Virginia Peninsula with over eight thousand employees; it is the second largest employer in the community. Our program is very diverse, all encompassing and we are currently looking for a dynamic leader for our cancer program. It provides state-of-the-art care and has a group of highly trained and compassionate physicians and support personnel.

You will function as an Administrative Leader and partner with our Medical Directors.

Responsibilities include but are not limited too:

- To drive and ensure the continued successful development of the clinical, research, education, and business programs
- Ensure optimal quality in delivery of care/service
- Ensure achievement of program and financial metrics
- Position Riverside as a market leader in high quality, innovative cancer programs regionally/nationally for key areas
- Implementation and monitoring of all services and businesses
- Integration of the service line with the broader mission of the organization
- Continue to grow the Riverside Health System Cancer Services

This opportunity with Riverside Health System (RHS) is located in the scenic, coastal region of southeastern Virginia. RHS is one of the nation's strongest healthcare providers, which has four outstanding hospitals. The flagship facility located in Newport News, Virginia is Riverside Regional Medical Center (RRMC): a newly renovated, state-of-the-art, 576-bed community hospital. RRMC supports three residency programs and draws from a population of approximately 650,000.

Beyond the strength of the medical community, our Newport News community has been Voted #1 "Place to do Business" and recognized by Parenthood Magazine as #2 in the country in "Best places to raise a family" and Riverside Medical Group has been recognized as one of the preeminent medical groups in the country by the AMGA.
