

Chief Nursing Officer
Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey
RWJBarnabas Health
New Brunswick, NJ

RWJBH/Rutgers Cancer Institute – the only NCI designated cancer Institute in New Jersey, part of the largest healthcare systems in New Jersey - seeks a Chief Nursing Officer for an exciting, pioneering role.

Imagine yourself in this first-ever CNO role at RWJBH/Rutgers Cancer Institute:

- promoting a system-wide infrastructure to integrate oncology services under one model of care
- leading all nursing services provided at the Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey (RCINJ)
- collaborating with CNOs across the RWJBH system to develop both shared and site-specific services
- participating in the planning and design of three new ambulatory oncology facilities

Importantly, this CNO will play a critical role in developing a signature cancer service by mobilizing and leveraging RWJBH/RCINJ's exceptional scientific and clinical capabilities across the RWJB Health system.
